UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COMMAND CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT LISA A. SIROIS

Chief Master Sergeant Lisa A. Sirois is the Command Chief Master Sergeant, 55th Wing, Offutt Air Force Base, Nebraska. She is the principal enlisted advisor to the Commander, 55th Wing and is responsible for assessing factors influencing the mission readiness, utilization, morale, and quality of life of 5,100 enlisted airmen assigned to the largest and most diverse wing in Air Combat Command, which consist of six groups and 30 squadrons executing worldwide reconnaissance, electronic attack, command and control, presidential support, and treaty verification directed by the President of the United States, Secretary of Defense, Joint Chiefs of Staff, theater commands, major commands and national intelligence agencies. Other responsibilities include coordinating with 90 associate units, including United States Strategic Command, Air Force Weather Agency and more than 57,000 active duty members, civilians, dependents, and retirees on matters of administration and implementation of wing policies.

Previous to this assignment, she was the Command Chief Master Sergeant for the 376th Air Expeditionary Wing, Manas Air Base, Kyrgyz Republic, supporting approximately 1,200 personnel deployed to the base in support of operations in Afghanistan. Her background is in information management, and she has worked in all functional areas of the career field. She has held positions at wing and major command levels and also served in a special duty assignment as a career assistance advisor. Her assignments include bases in Ohio, South Dakota, Hawaii and Massachusetts, and she previously deployed to Dhahran AB, Saudi Arabia, in support of Operations Desert Storm and Southern Watch.
